How to Play

Welcome to the WWU Scholarship Center's first Passport to Scholarship Success!

Make your way around the WWU campus to discover all the free scholarship resources students have available to them.

After completing 5 tasks either by getting your Scholarship Passport stamped by one of our campus partners, or by self-reporting any of the activities, you will be able to submit your completed Passport to the Scholarship Center and be entered into a drawing for a $500 Scholarship for the 2018-2019 academic year.

Be sure to follow us on Facebook and Instagram for updates and to see your fellow travelers' progress.

Completed Passports must be submitted to the WWU Scholarship Center by April 13.

Scholarship Center

Visit the Scholarship Center in Old Main 285 and discover all the different resources that we have available to students.

Get your Passport stamped here by dropping in to visit with one of our Peer Advisors and have them show you how to navigate our website and discuss your scholarship search and application questions.

Monday–Friday

9am–4pm

Hacherl Research & Writing Studio

Drop by the Hacherl Research & Writing Studio, located on the second floor of Haggard Hall, to be connected with support for research, reading and writing across all subjects—including scholarship essays. Working with the Studio, you will develop strategies to take control of your own learning. You can also submit drafts to RWS staff online and receive feedback within 48 hours (<https://library.wvu.edu/rws/about>).

Get your Passport stamped here by working on a scholarship essay with a studio assistant or by submitting a draft to RWS online.

Scholarship Application Submitted

There are so many great scholarship opportunities offered through Western & across the country, be sure to check them all out.

Get your Passport stamped by letting us know which 2018-2019 WWU or private scholarship you have applied for.
